

Secrets for Decorating Your Home On Any Budget (BIG or Small)!

Decorating doesn't have to cost a fortune, you can make your home look like a million bucks for just pennies on the dollar says a design expert. Susan Welch Henney, a licensed interior designer and owner of decoratingstudio.com, reveals some of her best tips:

Mix It Up

If you have $250 to spend on furniture, your money will go further at a Goodwill store or an estate sale, than an antique shop or new furniture showroom. Look for good substantial pieces. If the wood needs to be redone, it can be refinished.

Similarly, a piece of glass over an attractive base makes for an interesting and inexpensive coffee table. So does an old trunk or chest.

For a stylish dining room, mix and match a secondhand table with an eclectic assortment of chairs that complement the table.

Brush It Up

You can give a room a rich feel by applying dark taupe, hunter green or chocolate brown paint.

Texture also adds appeal. Ragging, sponging,

Simple Cure for Colic Brings Sweet Dreams To Babies and Parents

An amazing new cure for colic is bringing restful nights to babies and parents alike. Based on an age-old method of comforting colic babies, the invention called the Lull-A-Band has already helped hundreds of families with newborns get some sleep.

Miami pediatrician Luis Bauzo, MD says, "This is something incredible." The Lull-A-Band is a swath of fabric made from cotton, polyester and lycra, with Velcro on each end.

It goes around a baby's middle, giving them a snug hug around the tummy that seems to work miracles with many crying babies. "It was such a relief, more of a relief than you could ever believe," said mother Debra Henry of New London, Ohio, whose son Noah cried every day, sometimes for hours.

"I was skeptical. though, 'How could this little piece of elastic do anything?' But it worked. Thank God!" Colic is the inconsolable crying that may babies experience at least once a day. They often get red in the face and seem to be in pain.

"It usually starts at 3 weeks of age and finishes at 3 months," Dr. Bauzo said. "Colicky babies seem to

How To Minimize Your Headache Following A Car Accident...

Here are five common auto-accident scenarios and tips on how to best handle them:

Scenario #1: One-car accidents

If you're involved in a single-car accident, call the police right away to file an accident report. Even when no one else is involved, the police report can provide documentation that helps make filing your claim easier. Notify your insurance and file a claim on your collision insurance to cover the damage.

Scenario #2: When the other driver doesn't report the claim to his insurance company.

If you're involved in a two-car accident, don't forget to write down the other driver's insurance information, address, and phone number. If the other driver is found at fault and doesn't report the claim to his insurance company, you can contact his insurance directly.

Scenario #3: When you're hit by an uninsured driver, and you don't have uninsured motorist coverage.

Unfortunately, you don't have many options in this case. You can make a claim on your own collision insurance and ask the other driver to reimburse you for your deductible. If he refuses, you can sue him to get your deductible back. But if you don't have collision insurance, you're basically out of luck. You can ask the other driver to pay for damages. If he refuses, you can take him to court.

Scenario #4: You find a dent on your car and the driver didn't leave a note.

It's better not to file a claim on minor dents and scratches. Some insurance companies will raise your premium if you file a claim on several minor accidents. If it costs only a little more to fix than your deductible, forget filing a claim.

Scenario #5: Another driver is clearly at fault in an accident and offers to pay for the damage in cash than file a claim.

If you have even the slightest hint of an injury, don't accept the offer. Sometimes injuries won't show up for another 24 hours, making it difficult to assess how extensive your injuries may be. Treating injuries can cost thousands of dollars.

Relief for Millions with Rheumatoid Arthritis

Rheumatoid arthritis (RA) affects millions of Americans mostly women, with pain, stiffness, and swelling of the wrists, hands, feet, knees and other joints.

A complex disease with a variety of possible cause, it usually begins in middle age. The immune system begins to attack joint tissue, causing pain, swelling, and even crippling deformities.

The standard medical approach to RA has relied on drugs anti-inflammatories, corticosteroids and even chemotherapeutic agents such as methotrexate.

These measures are expensive, fraught with toxic side effects, and often fail. One long term study of RA patients treated conventionally over 20 years found over half had died or were severely disabled and only 18 percent were able to lead a normal life!

Fortunately, I've found that an alternative approach based on diet and nutrition is effective for many people, including those for whom the conventional approach has failed.

Rheumatoid Fighting Foods:

1. Eat a diet rich in whole foods, vegetables, and fiber and low in sugar, meat, dairy products, alcohol, processed foods and animal fats. Studies show a vegetarian diet (with out eggs and dairy products) is most effective at relieving symptoms.

Relief for Millions with Rheumatoid Arthritis

2. If you feel better eating meat, avoid beef, lamb and pork and instead eat fish. Studies have shown that fish such as salmon, tuna, trout and sardines can help relieve RA.

3. Avoid allergy provoking foods that can aggravate RA. For many people, these include dairy products, beef and certain vegetables (wheat, corn, tomatoes, potatoes eggplant, and peppers). You can consult with a nutritional physician for testing methods to discover which foods cause you trouble.

Rheumatoid Fighting Supplements:

Start with half doses and build up to full doses over the course of several months:

1. DHEA: 25-50 mg. per day
2. Flaxseed oil: one to two tbsps. per day.
3. Vitamin B-complex: 50-100 mg. per day.
4. Pantothenic acid: 500 mg. once or twice per day.
5. Vitamin C: 1-3 grams per day in divided doses.
6. Bromelain: 500 mg four times a day between meals to reduce inflammation.

Rheumatoid Fighting Herbs:

For several inflammation try one or more of these herbal medicines:

1. Curcumin: 400 mg three times per day.
2. Ginger. As directed on label.
3. Chinese thoroughwax (Bupleuri falcatum). As directed on label.

Physical Therapy:

Regular physical therapy that includes range of motion, stretching, and strengthening exercises can help reduce stiffness and discomfort. Spa-type treatments mud packs and mineral baths can also help relieve pain.

Many people with RA have found bathing in mineral salts from the Dead Sea, available in health food stores, helpful.

The Secrets of Sunscreen Exposed...How To Protect Your Family This Summer!

Summer's here, and so are the sun's harmful rays. But you can protect yourself and your family by knowing how to properly apply sunscreen. "You must use a sunscreen and use it faithfully, says Dr. Brandith Irwin, a Seattle based dermatologist and author of "Your Best Face: Looking Your Best Without Plastic Surgery."

It's even more important if you are a blonde or redhead, have blue eyes or have very light skin. If you don't use sunscreen consistently, the sun can cause premature aging and skin cancer. Dr. Audrey Kunin, a dermatologist and founder of DERMAdoctor.com, said: "Sunscreen use is ideal for everyone, every day." Choose a sunscreen with an SPF (sun protection factor) that is 15 or higher, Dr. Irwin advised.

THE MEANING OF SPF

"The SPF tells you how long you can be out in the sun without burning. For instance, if you would burn in an hour and you choose a sunscreen with SPF of 15, you can be in the sun 15 hours before you will burn. An SPF of 30 offers a huge protective value, not just in the amount of time you can stay (Continues on page 5)

Marbleizing and stenciling are easy ways to decorate the walls that you can do yourself. Kits are available in craft stores.

Wallpaper is costly, but it can be a bargain when used as an 8-inch border that's placed over the painted surface.

HAND IT UP

Sheet or fabric slipcovers can cover old chairs or couches, and can double as window treatments. Framed calendars or mirrors look very ornate when hung up.

If a frame is too expensive, buy a poster or print and attach it to foam core with spray adhesive. Next, cut around the outline of the print, attach a hanger on the back and you're done.

SPRUCE IT UP

Silk trees are pretty post lit or with a spotlight from beneath and give the room a warm feel. Area rugs and plants can also add interest without putting a hole in your wallet.

Falling Stars?

Star-gazers can spot as many as 50 to 150 falling stars, or "meteors," per hour from Aug. 10-12. Meteors are often no larger than a grain of sand. Because they orbit the sun, it's possible to predict the dates of their arrival. As they come within the upper atmosphere, friction with the air burns them up, which explains the light they give off.

The earliest recorded observation of the Perseid Meteor Showers dated back to 36 AD when the Chinese noted that "more than 100 meteors flew in the morning." The Perseids are so named because early observations thought that the showers emanated from the constellation Perseus. Astronomers recommend viewing the showers after midnight to see the most meteors.

Just a little humor to help you ease the pain at your next trip to the gas pump. Imagine if your car ran on these more expensive substances:

Diet Snapple 16 oz. $1.29.....$10.32 per gallon
Lipton Ice Tea 16 oz $1.19.....$9.52 per gallon
Gatorade 20 oz $1.59.....$10.17 per gallon

Brake Fluid 12 oz $3.15.....$33.60 per gallon
Vick's Nyquil 6 oz $8.35.....$178.13 per gallon

Whiteout 7 oz $1.39.....$25.42 per gallon
Scope 1.5 oz $0.99.....$84.48 per gallon

in the sun before burning, but in actually preventing the sun's rays from causing cellular DNA damage. The closer you get to an SPF of 30, the more protection you get."

Products with an SPF of 4 or 8 are not protecting your skin, even if you have dark skin, according to Dr. Kunin.

Fifty Not Nifty

"Also, skip the products that have an SPF of 50. Once you get past 30, there's truly no difference in protection, there's only about one one-hundredth of one percent difference between an SPF of 30 and an SPF of 50. It's just a marketing ploy."

"The one exception is a product called Total Block. It was formulated for people with severe sun sensitivities. Make sure the sunscreen protest against both UVA and UVB (ultraviolet) rays. The label will say UVA/UVB or it will say broad spectrum." To find the best sunscreen, read the labels and choose products that contain at least 5 to 8 percent zinc and 10 percent titanium, said Dr. Irwin. Just remember to read labels to make sure you are getting a product with enough zinc to actually help. (MORE safety tips found on page 7) with dozens of different fabrics and styles before they came up with the final product. The key to the Lull-A-Band is putting it on the baby just before they crying begins, Stanford said. Since colic usually occurs at the same time everyday, that isn't a problem for most parents.

Stanford and Gonzales have sent Lull-A-Band around the country and around the world. A package of three costs $29.99.

Getting Kids To Exercise

One of the culprits responsible for the increase in the number of overweight children is a lack of exercise. Here are some great tips from fitness expert Dr. Kenneth Cooper and the National Association for Sports and Physical Education:

1. OFFER rewards for exercising, such as tokens they can save to attend a sporting event or theme park.
2. HAVE a "toy run" by hiding small, inexpensive toys along a neighborhood route. Walk or run with your child to pick up the prizes.
3. WATCH sporting events on TV or movies with a sports theme, such as "The Karate Kid" or "The Rookie," and then try to engage the kids in such an activity.
4. WALK or ride a bike with your kids while doing errands.

Captain Jack Sparrow (Johnny Depp) returns to the screen for another round of supernatural adventures on the high seas in this spirited sequel to the 2003 Disney hit, which re-teams original director Gore Verbinski with original screenwriters Ted Elliott and Terry Rossio.

As Will (Orlando Bloom) and Elizabeth (Keira Knightley) prepare to exchange vows at the altar, their wedding plans hit rough waters with the arrival of sea-bound scallywag Jack Sparrow.

It seems that Sparrow owes a substantial blood debt to Scottish sea captain Davy Jones (Bill Nighy), and that the only way for the flamboyant sea rover to elude the wrath of his other worldly pursuer is to seek the aid of Gypsy queen Tia Dalma (Naomie Harris), whose power to resurrect the dead and gaze into the future may provide just the advantage needed to avoid a waterlogged fate in the locker of his legendary nemesis.

FACT: About 9,600 Americans died of skin cancer in 2002, according to the American Cancer Society. The experts offer these additional sunscreen tips:

- Stick with products that are fragrance free.
- Avoid products containing PABA. "Many people are allergic to PABA," said Dr. Kunin.
- Gels work best for oily skin, and creams work best for drier skin.
- Always check a sunscreen's expiration date.
- Use three times as much sunscreen as you think you need. "Studies have shown that the biggest mistake many people make is they don't put enough on," said Dr. Irwin.
- Reapply your sunscreen, especially after swimming or exercising. "Every two hours is a good rule," said Dr. Kunin.
- Lastly, make sure to apply sunscreen 20 to 30 minutes before going outdoors.
